

18 Ennis Street, Balmain

Chic terrace in superb locale.

Presented over two levels this spacious terrace offers charm and elegance. An attractive exposed brickwork facade with sandstone trim makes for an appealing exterior. Interiors are arranged in a traditional floor plan showcasing high ceilings, timber floors and original fireplaces. A separate formal lounge is partially separated from an adjoining dining room. Multiple windows and skylights throughout the home assure bright interiors. Also discover a separate polished granite kitchen with stainless steel appliances and a courtyard garden embraced by mature greenery. For more information please visit our website.
